JAMES CLANCY'S POLI THEATER. Triple Feature Bill is Packing the House.

Enthusiasm and applause of the loadest kind prevailed at all perform-ances at Poll's meater yesterday, and despite the unfavorable weather crowds were out in good numbers. there is a reason feature pictures the best that were ever projected on a streen were shown. Not one feature picture, but three absolute feature photo plays, and an exeruciating comedy that convulsed everyone with bilarieus laugure. To say that the hlisrions languter. To say that the audiences were pleased would be plac-ing it mildly indeed.

The one picture, in the Midst of Tri-pell, or The Brave Deserve the Fair, certainly is a realistic piece of warfare, utilishe hav amount of ammopleture is also remaints and vivid. For a restern picture. The Oath of His office is one of the best western pictures ever shown. It tells an exciting story, and features Sheriff Anderson on Broncho Billey. The andlence simply went wild over this picture.

The other feature. The Little Stownwar, by the famous Selig Studio, is an excellent picture, taken on both land and the high seas. All the prominent members of the Selig firm are portraved in this ploture. As a large private in this ploture. As a large getter pothing better ins ever been.

There was a large attendance at getter nothing better has ever been then The Lady Police. It is said very funn. To get the women's evening to listen to the lecture given and very funn. To get the women's by Rev James H. George, Jr., of Danielsen, on his work as a mission-commissioner of police, and she chose any to China.

There was a harge attendance at Covernor Clark, Formerly of Chaplin, Appears Before Committee at Washington.

MORNING: The shadow from the headland lifts, And slowly fades away. As up the sky's broad channel drifts The treasure-ship of day.

The sunrise! How her sails of some bill to the morning breeze; And what brave largess in her hold She bears from over sens!

The old glad seal is born— The boundless wonder and surprise Of many another morn. The ship of priceless freight.
